

Marijuana Policy

The City prohibits the use or possession of marijuana in the workplace as it remains a federal offense regardless of the provisions of Colorado's Amendment 64. The City of Louisville is the recipient of federal dollars and as such is required to follow the Drug Free Workplace Act of 1988 which prohibits the possession, use, and distribution of Schedule 1 Drugs which includes marijuana.