Louisville Announces Finalists for Director of Parks, Recreation & Open Space Position

The City of Louisville today announced the names of the candidates to be interviewed for the Director of Parks, Recreation & Open Space position. They include:

- Andrew Bass, Director of Parks, Recreation, and Community Service, City of Reno, NV
- Melissa Daruna, District Manager/Executive Director, Ken-Caryl Ranch Metropolitan District, CO
 - Rosalyn Epting, Director of Parks and Recreation, City of La Porte, TX
 - Nathan Mosley, Director of Parks and Open Space, Adams County, CO

Louisville City Manager Heather Balsler stated, “I am pleased to invite four highly-qualified candidates to interview for the Director of Parks, Recreation & Open Space position. The candidates were selected from a nation-wide search and represent a strong pool of applicants that offer diverse backgrounds, experience and expertise.”

The City will host an Open House for the candidates on Tuesday, November 13 from 5:30 pm – 6:30 pm at Louisville Center for the Arts, 801 Grant Street, with the candidates giving short introductions at 5:45 pm. This will be an opportunity for residents and employees to meet the candidates.
