Visit from members of the Louisville Cultural Council – Members from the Louisville Cultural Council to get feedback and ideas for programming from the board about things that appeal to the community. Past programs put on by Louisville Cultural Council include: summer concerts, lectures, silent films, zoo presentations, music/painting events and more. Goal is to create programming that appeals to all ages. Want input on events that teens will attend. Board members were encouraged to contact Katie Zoss if they had any ideas for programs that will appeal to teens, as well as if they have any questions or suggestions. If you have any questions about the Louisville Cultural Council, you can contact Katie Zoss or Adam Sloat at: adam@adamsloat.com

Volunteer Projects

- January
 - Recreation Center Ribbon Cutting – Saturday 1/26 from 9:30am-1pm. Members of the YAB will help with the event.
- February
 - Tulip Twist – Saturday 2/2 from 2:30-5:15pm

Transportation Project –

- Survey Results from Kathleen Calcagno – 3 classes at monarch were polled and the results were:
 - Have you ever heard of the call and ride?
 - Yes (39) No (91)
 - Would you like to know more information about the Call and Ride?
 - Yes (30) No (97)
 - If you have heard of the Call and Ride, do you know what it does?
 - Yes (39) No (90)
 - Do you know how much it costs?
 - Yes (11) No (116)
- Check in with groups about strategies
 - Social Media: Brooke talked about the cost of Instagram advertisements. Lincoln talked about how he published an article in the Monarch Pack about the call-and-ride for the January issue. Addie talked about schoolology posts for Monarch and how to get a post up on schoolology. Addie said she will write a draft for post on schoolology, with the goal of getting it released in January.
 - Parent letter: Sophie and Riley drafted a letter that could be sent to parents about the call-and-ride. Riley also suggested getting Monarch's principal to make an announcement on his weekly call to parents. Riley said she would email her draft to Kaylix in the next week.
 - Event with giveaways: Logan talked about events at Monarch that could work with the call-and-ride events. Logan said he would come up with a few spring events that the call-and-ride van could come to so they can promote the service.
- Kaylix's Presentation: Kaylix said she would create a presentation for the January meeting that has information about each of the strategies for promoting the call-and-ride.

Discussion Items for Next Meeting-

- Mandy talked about the possibility of a tour of the new Rec Center in January (probably on a Thursday). She will send out a sign up soon.

Comments from Liaisons

- Mandy reminded the board about the open positions at the rec center and how the Youth Advisory Board can be both on the board and a staff member for the city.
- Jay and Mandy wished the board a happy holiday season!

Adjourn – The meeting was adjourned at 7:25 pm.
