Dear Louisville Resident:
No matter the time of day or night, in the event of any emergency, the Louisville Police Department officers will be the first responders to the scene. Whether it's a traffic accident, fire or medical emergency, they will be the first to arrive. The decisions they make upon arrival can determine the outcome of the situation. They responded to over 10,000 calls from dispatch in 2017 and in addition the officers initiated another over 9,000 contacts.

While always ready to perform primary law enforcement, the Louisville PD officers do not just wait for problems to arise. They believe their mission is to provide safety and also to improve the quality of life in the community. They take a proactive approach to address issues and try to avoid problems in advance. This can result in investigations to shut down a telephone scam operation. It can mean providing safety at our community events. Recognizing that crime rates depend on many factors, I believe the hard work of our PD is why crime, while up in Colorado overall, is down in Louisville.

In keeping with the City's approach to other issues such as open space and transportation, the Louisville PD collaborates with other regional law enforcement. This includes the Boulder County Sheriff, the Lafayette Police Department and the Boulder Office of Emergency Management. Louisville PD has an outside assistance policy that if an officer in another jurisdiction needs assistance they respond without hesitation. If law enforcement in a neighbor community is tied up by a major event, they will assist with other needs in that community. Of course this collaboration also serves to keep our citizens safe when we need assistance.

They perform all these duties with professionalism and care. This is evidenced by the many thank you notes and calls they receive. Not surprisingly, they receive thanks from residents when they volunteer to do yard work the resident is physically or otherwise unable to do themselves. However you wouldn't necessarily expect to get thanked by people when they've been pulled over by a patrol officer—but they do. Consider the story of the resident who was on the way home from Napa auto parts with a replacement headlight bulb when they were stopped for a headlight out. Rather than writing a ticket, the officer installed the new bulb. Another person, 10 months after being stopped for a DUI, wrote to say the interaction with the officer was "life changing" and that the officer truly saved his life.

School safety is foremost in our minds today. This is one of the department's highest priorities. The City has hired a dedicated full-time school resource officer for Monarch High School and we have officers assigned to all the schools in the City. The PD investigates any and all calls and tips related to school safety thoroughly. These tips may come through the Safe2Tell website, from school staff or students. While preventing danger is the first goal, the department trains and does trainings for active shooter scenarios and has close working relationships with the Boulder County Sheriff. Several of our officers serve on the County SWAT team.

Chief Hayes wanted me to tell the residents, businesses and visitors of Louisville that the 35 commissioned men and women of the Louisville Police Department, along with the code enforcement division and civilian staff of the department, are here to help any way they can. I want to offer all members of the department my heartfelt thanks for their professional service to the community. I encourage residents to reach out to the PD if you have any safety concerns.

CITY INVITES FEEDBACK ON BROADBAND

Residents are invited to participate in the City's Broadband Needs Assessment and Feasibility Study by taking an online survey. During the month of May, the City sent postcards to a random sampling of households. If you did NOT receive a postcard and would like to complete the survey, please visit the following link: www.LouisvilleBroadbandOpinion.com. The online survey will be available through June 15th. Businesses will receive a separate survey link by mail.

Additionally the City will host two open houses for residents to learn about the study and share their feedback in person. The first open house is scheduled for Thursday, June 7th from 6-8 pm and the second open house is scheduled for Friday, June 15th from 9-11 am. COMCAST CONSTRUCTION FOR NETWORK UPGRADE THIS SUMMER

Comcast is planning to launch an Advanced Fiber Network project in Louisville beginning in late May. This multi-month engineering and construction project will bring fiber optic infrastructure deeper into Louisville neighborhoods. City-wide in scope, the project involves a combination of construction in the public right-of-way and easements, installation of new and upgraded equipment and changes to the network architecture. To learn more about the project, including construction timeline and customer notifications, visit the City's website at <http://www.LouisvilleCO.gov/Residents/Comcast-Fiber-Project>.

NEW FAQ PAGE ON CITY WEBSITE

Do you have questions about City services, departments or anything else related to Louisville? Visit the new Frequently Asked Questions page on the City's website at <http://www.LouisvilleCO.gov/About-Us/Frequently-Asked-Questions>. You can read answers to topics the City is often asked about and even submit your own questions on this new page.

CITY TO INITIATE TWO MAJOR PLANNING STUDIES

This summer, the City is beginning the process of developing its first comprehensive Transportation Master Plan (TMP). The TMP will provide a long-term transportation vision for the City of Louisville, and serve as a guiding document for improvements to local and regional roads and multimodal transportation networks. The City's goals for the TMP are to be more strategic with existing and future investments in the transportation network and improve mobility and access in a way that is safe and convenient while minimizing auto congestion and associated impacts. The TMP will also recognize evolving technology and future trends in transportation systems and service delivery. Having a well-planned and coordinated transportation network is vital to the long term fiscal health of the City, helps the City meet its sustainability goals and ensure the continued viability of its small town character. The City has contracted with Traffic Engineers Inc. (TEI) and Economic Planning Systems to assist with the development of the Plan.

The City is also developing a South Boulder Road Pedestrian and Bicycle Study. This study will develop alternatives to improve pedestrian and bicycle safety so as to better connect the destinations on the north and south side of the South Boulder Road corridor between Via Appia and State Highway 42. Alternatives will include two potential underpasses and possibly other roadway or traffic signal modifications. The City will host numerous public meetings as part of both projects.

If you are interested in finding out more about the TMP process and finding ways to be involved please visit www.LouisvilleCO.gov/Residents/Enotification and sign up for enotifications or you can visit the City's website for the project at www.LouisvilleCO.gov/TMP. You can also contact the Planning Division at 303.335.4592 or Planning@LouisvilleCO.gov to find out more. If you have any questions regarding the South Boulder Road Pedestrian Study and Plan, please contact the Public Works Department at 303.335.4608 or PWorks@LouisvilleCO.gov.

DESIGN GUIDELINES & SIGN CODE UPDATE

Stay up-to-date with the comprehensive update to the City's commercial and industrial development design standards and sign code by signing up for enotifications (calendar and events) at www.LouisvilleCO.gov/Enotification and through Engage Louisville (www.EngageLouisvilleCO.org).

FLOOD MAPPING & REGULATIONS

The City recently made major investments in drainage infrastructure that have removed floodplain areas from most of Downtown and Old Town. However, areas along Coal Creek near drainage facilities and irrigation ditches are still prone to flooding. As we head into summer, the City wants to remind everyone about flood safety and how to obtain information if your property is in the floodplain.

Safety should be the first priority during a flood. Did you know that six inches of moving water can knock you off your feet? Never walk through flowing water or walk through standing water unless you are certain of the depth of the water. Do not drive through flooded areas; more flood victims drown in their cars than anywhere else. If your home has been flooded, shut off the gas and electricity if you are able.

The City has worked hard to reduce the threat of and damage from flooding by recognizing that floodplains have natural and beneficial functions if they are preserved and maintained properly. Keeping floodplains open and natural minimizes flood damage by allowing water to spread over a larger area. In some instances, construction in the floodplain cannot be avoided and the City has a permitting process to address these situations. Any construction on property in a floodplain must have a floodplain development permit, including minor residential improvements such as a deck. If the improvements you make to your home or commercial building exceed more than 50% of the value of the building, it must be elevated above the base flood elevation as part of the construction.

Louisville participates in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP). The NFIP makes federally backed flood insurance available for all buildings, whether they are in a designated floodplain or not. Louisville residents are eligible for a discount on insurance premiums. Renters can also buy flood insurance for their contents. Flood insurance covers direct losses caused by surface flooding, due to either a creek overflowing its banks or a local drainage event. Regular homeowner's insurance does not cover damage caused by floods.

Homeowners, realtors, lenders, and insurance agents can obtain copies of floodplain maps and Elevation Certificates, find out if a property is located in a floodplain or obtain floodplain protection advice by visiting City Hall or contacting the Planning Division at 303.335.4592 or Planning@LouisvilleCO.gov. Additional information on the NFIP and flood insurance requirements can be obtained from www.FloodSmart.gov and www.FEMA.gov/National-Flood-Insurance-Program.

CHANGES TO PRIMARY ELECTIONS IN COLORADO

Colorado voters approved Proposition 108 in 2016, which allows unaffiliated voters (sometimes referred to as "independent" voters) to now participate in Colorado primary elections. Here is how it works this year:

- All active unaffiliated voters receive the Primary Election ballots for both the Democratic and Republican Parties in the mail unless the voter pre-designated their ballot preference (by updating their voter registration with a ballot preference).
- For unaffiliated voters receiving both ballots in the mail, the voter must vote only one ballot – then tear and discard/recycle the other ballot.

The Community Park Sculpture Garden has room for a total of four sculptures and fundraising efforts are underway for the purchase of the next two sculptures.

- The voter then returns their one voted ballot in their return envelope by mail, ballot drop-off, etc.

If a voter marks and returns more than one party's ballot, none of their votes on either ballot will be counted. Additionally, by selecting and returning a party ballot, a voter's "unaffiliated" voter registration will not be changed. For those registered with a political party, there are no changes to the Primary Election process. The voter gets a ballot in the mail for their political party, if their party is holding a Primary Election. Ballots are mailed the first week of June. For more voter and election information, visit www.BoulderCountyVotes.org or call 303.413.7740.

MOTOR VEHICLE OFFICES TO UPGRADE COMPUTER SYSTEMS THIS SUMMER

Statewide Motor Vehicle offices are getting a new computer system to replace their 1980s MS-DOS system. During June and July, residents should anticipate a longer wait time as many staff members will be offsite being trained on the new system. The Boulder County Clerk & Recorder's Office runs the local Motor Vehicle Division where residents register/title vehicles and receive license plates.

To avoid the increased wait times, the Clerk & Recorder's Office is urging residents to renew their registration early and to do so online or by mail, if eligible. If you need an emissions test, drivers can take care of that first and after 48 hours will be able to renew online. Additionally, even if your grace month is about to expire, renewing online is still an option and drivers can print a temporary renewal receipt. For those who have to visit the office in person, the Clerk & Recorder's Office is encouraging those residents to allow plenty of time or to schedule an appointment online. To schedule an appointment, visit www.BoulderCounty.org/MV.

Finally, residents should be aware that all three motor vehicle offices in Boulder, Longmont, and Lafayette will be closed August 1st-3rd in order to install the new computer systems across the state. Online services will also be unavailable during this window and through the weekend of August 4th-5th.

GREEN SCENE

On March 5th, City Council approved a 2-Year Work Plan for the Louisville Sustainability Action Plan. To view the plan, visit www.LouisvilleCO.gov/Sustainability. The Green Business Program had 38 local business participants in 2017. Collectively the businesses will save 288 mtCO₂, equivalent to 31 homes energy usage for an entire year. Keep an eye out for upcoming events and programs! The Summer Concert series will be zero-waste this year and there will be several Bike to Work Day (BTWD) stations in Louisville on June 27th. The City is hosting a breakfast station at City Hall. To register for BTWD and view a map of all stations, visit BiketoWorkDay.us.

NEW WAY TO LEARN ABOUT LOUISVILLE HISTORY

As you are walking around Louisville this summer, check out the City's new interpretive signs located at John Breaux Memorial Park, South Street Underpass, Memory Square, and Community Park. These signs connect your favorite areas of Louisville to their unique history. Thanks to a partnership with the City's Planning & Building Safety Department, Museum staff, Historic Preservation Commission and Historical Commission for getting these sign installed! For more information, please contact Lauren Trice at LaurenT@LouisvilleCO.gov.

SUMMER SAFETY TIPS

Although most wildfires in Boulder County have occurred in mountain areas, drought, high summer temperatures, seasonal high winds and increased human presence through recreational use in grasslands result in an environment prone to extreme wildfire behavior. It is important that residents pay attention to public warnings (i.e. burn ban days, no open burning in City limits) and properly discard of any cigarettes.

While firepits may look tempting at the store, the Louisville Municipal Code does not permit any type of open burning within City limits (with the exception of gas fed firepits). This is the Fire Code and has been enforced for approx. 20 years. Although the Fire Department does not patrol and issue tickets, they will extinguish any firepits if called to a residence.

Outside of the health issues that may be caused by the smoke particles in the air, we also live in a dry climate that can pose a fire danger anywhere in the City without the added dangers of open fires. Many of these firepits do not have proper smoke emission and spark control that are required to be safe.

Another safety hazard we often encounter in the summer is fireworks. Fireworks can cause significant physical harm and acute injuries and are responsible for an average of 18,500 fires per year. Many pets also suffer from the sound of fireworks, causing anxiety and panic. Please be considerate of your neighbors and refrain from using illegal fireworks.

If you have any questions, please contact the Louisville Fire Department at 303.666.6595 or Police Department at 303.441.4444.
