This section shall apply to all solicitations, including without limitation, those that are by a religious, charitable, school or civic organization, or other organization eligible for exemption under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. 5.06.030 No person shall attempt to obtain, by telephone or otherwise, an invitation to visit any private residence or other private premises for the purpose of soliciting the purchase or sale of goods, services, or any other thing of value, by knowingly making a false or deceptive representation or statement. 5.06.040 No person shall sell or offer for sale any goods, services, or any other thing of value from or upon any street, alley, sidewalk, park, or property owned or controlled by the city, except as may be authorized by the city council or its designee. The city council shall have the power to grant the privilege of conducting the activities described in this section pursuant to request, competitive bid, or otherwise as the council may from time to time determine. Such privilege shall be upon such terms and conditions as the city council deems appropriate to avoid an excess of vendors, derive revenue for the city, address public health and safety concerns, and to serve the public need. The city council delegates to the city manager or the manager's designee the power to act on behalf of the city council in granting the above privileges, subject to the same terms and restrictions set forth above. 5.06.050 Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a municipal offense, punishable as provided in section 1.28.010 of this code.
