Happy Fall to you all! We hope to have a little more of that nice fall weather before winter sets in. Either way, we have lots of fun things happening in preschool at the Louisville Recreation & Senior Center. We still have space for students in our afternoon Stepping Stones class. If you know anyone looking for a fun, community based preschool program, please send them our way!

2020-2021 Preschool
Registration will begin in January 2020 for next school years’ preschool program—Priority Registration Forms will be available in the sign in area when you return from winter break. Current students, siblings and Twoodles students receive priority registration.

Scholastic Book Order
Scholastic Book Orders are a great opportunity for families to build their children’s personal libraries while also helping our program build and maintain ours. When you order great children’s literature on a wide variety of subjects and for every interest and low special prices, we receive points that allow us to order books too. It is a win – win!

If you choose to purchase books as gifts, please write “GIFTS” on your order form and we will deliver them to you personally and discretely instead of putting them in cubbies. If you order on-line, just let Lana know that you have ordered gifts!

You can also order on line! Go to http://www.scholastic.com/clubsordering You can sign in as a parent, create your own account and link it with our program using the class activation code GW3BG if you haven’t already. November book orders are due November 7 and December book orders are due December 10.

Coats, Hats, Boots and Mittens
As the weather begins to get cooler, please make sure to send your preschooler to school with all of the outerwear they may need. We sometimes go to the gym instead of outside, but students should be prepared for outdoor play daily. Also, please label all belongings clearly.

Water bottles
Thank you for being so great about bringing a water bottle for your child each day. Please remember to take it home at the end of class.

Winter/Spring Recreation Catalog
The Winter/Spring Recreation Catalog will come out on December 4th. Registration will begin for Louisville Residents on Wednesday, December 11th at noon and noon, Wednesday, December 18th for Non-Residents.
Holiday Programs

Letters from Santa
All little ones enjoy a letter from Santa personalized especially for them! These letters are unique, highlighting your child’s recent accomplishments, big events, friends and holiday traditions. The deadline is November 6th so they can make it out to “the North Pole” for a special post office cancellation stamp before arriving in your mailbox.

Pancakes for Dinner with Santa! Thursday, December 12
Kids in their jammies, live Christmas carols with the Singing Seniors, pancakes made before your eyes, special surprises and top it off with a visit from Santa for a story, time to visit with Santa’s and other special surprises!
